Newlyweds Move To Eastern State

LOMITA.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kyker left Tuesday for Sweet Water, Tennessee, where Mr. Kyker will enter business with his father, J. S. Kyker, who owns an undertaking establishment there. Mr. and Mrs. Kyker were married on March 17 by Rev. Arthur Burrows of the Church of the Latter Day Saints, their attendants being Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Nicholas. The bride was formerly Susana Odeirk, a former student of Narbonne, while the groom has just left the navy.

Bible Conference To Be Held at Church

LOMITA.—Beginning March 29, a Bible conference will be held at the Community Presbyterian church, with the Fishermen's and Protestants' clubs in charge. The conference will close April 3. Plans are being completed for the annual Easter sunrise service which will be held on the Palos Verdes hills south of Narbonne.

Slight Loss From Garage Fire Tues.

LOMITA.—The fire department was called out Tuesday afternoon to 8941 Arizona street. A garage in the rear of a house occupied by the family of A. Martinez was the scene of the fire; a bicycle, together with a quantity of clothing, was destroyed. The garage had been used as a sleeping room and it is thought the fire originated from a carelessly dropped match.

J. E. Harris, whose home was almost completely destroyed by fire two weeks ago, has started a new house on his lot on Star street.

PROSPECTIVE EASTER BRIDE IS ENTERTAINED

LOMITA.—In honor of Miss Katherine Hunter, who is to be an Easter bride, Mrs. Bertha Wilcox entertained at dinner Monday night, yellow being the color chosen for the decorating scheme and the favors carrying out the Easter idea. Places were marked for Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Richey, Mrs. T. C. Richey, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. F. Street Namers Near End of Job

LOMITA.—Reports were given at the Street Naming committee meeting Friday, Frank Leonard stating that official action had been taken changing Redondo and El Prado to Torrance boulevard and Weston street to Lomita boulevard, and Sepulveda street and Long Beach road to Sepulveda boulevard. Cherry and Elgin streets will be changed to numerical names in compliance with the requests of residents of those streets. The committee expects to end its work in this section within the next few weeks and residents wishing to offer recommendations should do so at the next meeting of the local committee, March 31.

Fight Results In Liquor Raid Sunday

LOMITA.—As a result of a fight at 24611 Main street Sunday afternoon, Gus Lori is under arrest, charged with possession of liquor, while 500 gallons of wine will never reach their destined consumption, having been poured out by the dry squad.

Lori and a friend, Frank Hassenback, had an argument which led to blows. Neighbors summoned Constable Taber. When Taber and Deputy Neff arrived on the scene, they found Hassenback with a cut on the head, and Lori wanting his friend arrested. So Hassenback told the officers he could show them where Lori kept his wine. Going over to Lori's place the officers found wine, plenty of it. Lori claimed Hassenback was his partner, but as the wine was on Lori's place the constable turned him over to the dry squad.

NEWS FOR VOTERS AND UNEMPLOYED REPORTED

LOMITA.—Mrs. T. C. Erickson has been appointed deputy assessor for Lomita and will be at the Chamber of Commerce Tuesdays from 3 p. m. to 6 p. m. Mrs. Edna K. Lynne is busy registering people who wish to vote on the north end annexation proposition. People who are not registered or have moved should see Mrs. Lynne.

Through a misunderstanding, people who have registered for work are applying to Frank Laski or George Towne for work. The registrations for Lomita are turned over to the county stabilization bureau and cards are issued there.

"Brutal" Husbands Are EXPOSED!

LOMITA.—Only married six months and he went away to stay a week and only kissed her five times! This harrowing tale of the neglected wife of a traveling man, besides other instances of the brutality of husbands will be revealed more fully Friday night at Narbonne auditorium when the Orange Street P. T. A. presents "Clubbing a Husband." This play is said to be more thrilling than "True Confessions." It is darkly hinted that that is the reason Lomita Masonic lodge will be "dark" that night.

MARRIED A YEAR; BUT SECRETS JUST REVEALED

LOMITA.—After keeping their marriage secret a year, Merlo Richey and Robert George of Pasadena have announced their marriage. The event took place in Yuma, Arizona, March 17, 1930. The bride has been connected with the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company at Los Angeles. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Richey and is a talented musician and a graduate of Narbonne high school.

Mrs. C. O. Brown Is Chosen Matron

LOMITA.—Mrs. Clinton O. Brown was elected royal matron at the Amaranth election Thursday night. L. J. Hunter has been elected to serve as her royal patron, and other officers elected are Mrs. Marcella Brumpton, secretary; Mrs. Ethel Wait, treasurer; Mrs. Melissa Perkins, associate matron; C. O. Brown, associate patron; Mrs. Frances Hathaway, conductress; Mrs. Bessie West, associate conductress, and Mrs. Lillian Neely and Robert McCartney, trustees. John Mulkern Wins Contest

LOMITA.—Six Narbonne high school orators were left after the elimination contests Tuesday morning. The student-speakers were Ralph Adams, Woodrow Crank, Helen Clark, Fred Hamilton, Bentrice Woods, and John Mulkern.

The decisions of the judges were very close. John Mulkern was awarded first place and the prize of $10, and Ralph Adams second and a prize of $5. The honor of representing Narbonne in the Marine League contest now lies between Mulkern and Adams. Judges of the contest were S. D. Patterson, E. M. Mosher, and L. M. McClary, and members of the faculty.

Spring At Its Best Ruling in Lomita

LOMITA.—People who go far to see beautiful blossoms don't have to leave Lomita these days. With pear and apple trees in bloom, wisteria at its most beautiful time, the fragrant Scotch broom filling the air, and the orange trees waiting their fragrance to every passerby, one only has to glance from his car to see beauty people travel miles to find.

Vacation week will see many of the school children with their lunches going to the Palos Verdes hills, where the wild flowers rival Solomon in all his glory.
